November 2, 2006 • 12:00 pm – 7:30 pm
Registration opens at 11:30 am
Chase Center, Wilmington Riverfront

Family caregivers are invited to join others from the area for a full day of learning, sharing and friendship all in an environment that will feature educational seminars, product demonstrations, health screenings and spa treatments.

Most importantly, the expo will provide area caregivers the opportunity to meet and share experiences with others who find themselves in similar caregiving situations.

This will be a free event open to all community members. The day's events will include lunch, snacks, dinner and dessert throughout the duration of the expo.
